

AWARDS SUBMISSIONS

GUIDELINES

Nominees for the Global Energy Show Canada Awards will be selected from proposals submitted to the judging panel. Early submission is particularly important to ensure that the judging panel has ample time to review the proposals. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Step 1. Review Award Categories

Review the list of categories and corresponding questions for each category to determine the category that best fits the company or individual that you would like to nominate. A primary choice is required.

- If you submitted in previous years, do not submit the exact same information again for 2024
- Limit of three submissions per organization, please coordinate within your organization on which three categories you would like to focus on
- All submissions must pertain to a 2023/2024 initiative

Step 2. Submit Your Abstract

All abstract submissions will need to be submitted electronically through the online submission form by the February 2, 2024 deadline.

- Ensure that you have all the required questions completed before you begin
- The same submission may not be submitted for more than one category. If the same submission is submitted more than once, all submissions after the first entry will automatically be disqualified from consideration

Step 3. Judging Process

After you have submitted your submission for consideration the judging panel will review all submissions after the February 2, 2024 deadline.

The judging panel will review the submissions based on a list of criteria given to them ahead of time.

- All submitters will be notified by email to the main contact person indicated in the online submission form of the status of their submission by April 1, 2024

Step 4. Guidelines for Nominees

Only the information requested in the online form is required at this time. Detailed instructions on guidelines, criteria and requirements will be sent to each accepted presenter.

- Final nominees will be provided with further instructions and next steps at this time

- Nominated individuals and companies will be required to send at least one company representative. If nominees are not able to personally attend the ceremony, nominees will need to send someone to represent the company or individual.

dmg events assumes no obligation for expenses by nominees for travel, registration fees, accommodation, food, visa fees or other incidental expenses.
